

Along memory lane...

We lived at Indooroopilly and my children went to Holy Family School.

I have two favourite memories...I loved the masses with the school children and particularly the Christmas masses. The joy of the children and their families made those masses very moving.

I also became a Catholic at Holy Family on the Feast of Christ the King. It was a defining moment in my life.

Sabina O'Callaghan