

Along memory lane...

"My first day at school was in May 1958 I was the eldest of 7 children. My brother Tom was the fourth child and he was born in April of the same year. I think my mother decided at that time to send me to school." (Father Brennan was 4 years of age at that time.)

"I remember the Church was a wooden building with the school below and I particularly remember Mother Matthew who was my teacher in Grade 2. She came to my ordination".

"I was baptised at Holy Family Church on 21 March 1954. I attended the convent school there from 1958 until 1960. I made my first communion there on 23 October 1960. My family were parishioners until OLR started in Kenmore".

Below are photos of first day at school and my first communion.

Fr Frank Brennan

