

Honouring the Stations of the Cross

On Sunday 17 May after 8.30am Mass, Archbishop Mark Coleridge will honour the Stations of the Cross at Holy Family Church. The Stations of the Cross images were hand painted on the internal walls of the Church by artist Ray Crooke. The wonderful large, almost life size, images are the largest in the region and are a wonderful resource for both personal prayer as well for homilists to explain the Gospel.

SUNDAY,
17 May 2026
Following 8.30am
Mass
37 Ward Street
Indooroopilly
holyfamily100th@gmail.com

Commercial
All parishioners both past and present and community members are invited to participate.

Celebrating 100 years of faith and community