

Along memory lane...

1. In 2018 my son was transferred to Brisbane and resided on Clarence Road Indooroopilly so we attended Holy Family Church and became parishioners.
2. Our favourite memory is the Annual Multicultural event. The participation of parishioners from different countries in the world. Reminding us of the Universal Church, all united in one church, one God and in one country.

Jerry and Mary Ann Alphonso